The course will examine classical Islam with a focus on the life story of the Prophet Muhammad, basic beliefs in Islam; the Qur’an; hadith, Islamic philosophy and theology. Differentiate between Islamic thought systems - Sunni, Shi’a and Sufi and how women contributed to the growth of Islam.

The course counts towards Humanities elective and Global diversity credits.

Contact me about minoring/majoring in Religious studies at wangilam@ecu.edu or visit www.ecu.edu/religionprogram.